

Species in the Ko'olau Mountains

Plants:

- | | | | | |
|-------------------|--------------------------------|-------------------------|---------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Koa | Naupaka Kuahiwi | Loulu | Hapu'u | 'Ōhi'a |
| Acacia koa | Scaevola gaudichaudiana | Pritchardia spp. | Cibotium splendens | Metrosideros polymorpha |

Animals:

- | | | | | | |
|-----------------|----------------------|---------------|------------------|---------------|------------------------|
| 'Apapane | Pulelehua | 'O'opu | Hīhīwai | Kāhuli | Nanana Makaki'i |
| Native Bird | Kamehameha Butterfly | Goby fish | Freshwater Snail | Snail | Happy Face Spider |

About Ko'olau Mountains Watershed Partnership

KMPWP recognizes that the Ko'olau Mountains watershed is an invaluable resource for the island of O'ahu. It is integral to the island's present and future water supply. Proper management of the forested watershed is needed to preserve and protect the usefulness and value of the watershed perpetuity.

Website: koolauwatershed.org
 Email: koolaupartnership@gmail.com
 Phone: (808) 435-6110